

European Master in Lexicography (EMLex)

EMLex In-depth Module V1: Selected issues concerning the dictionary, lexicography and dictionary research

Name of module	In-depth Module V1: Selected issues concerning dictionaries, lexicography and dictionary research	10 ECTS
Course	Video lectures
Lecturers	Lecturers from partner/associate universities, guest lecturers during the summer term, speakers giving lectures at EMLex colloquiums
Person responsible for module	Prof. Stefania Nuccorini
Contents	Lectures given by academics from partner/associate universities, or by guest speakers: the lectures are made available via the EMLex moodle system. Two lectures (internet lexicography, digital dictionaries) are given by IDS Mannheim. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Internet lexicography 2. Digital dictionaries 3. Theoretical aspects 4. Dictionary use 5. Translation 6. Special-field lexicography 7. Dictionary structures 8. Specialist/specialized dictionaries 9. Occupational field “lexicographer”
Learning outcomes	The students are expected to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - be able to analyze scientific, special-field lectures (receptive skills), and solve content/field-specific problems; - exercise critical reflection on language and on working with language(s); - improve productive skills and be able to summarize results in written papers; - effectively communicate with fellow students
Requirements for participation	60 ECTS credits from the first year
Positioning within the schedule	Mandatory module in the third semester
Applicability of the module	Master degree programme

Examination	Writing a review of a dictionary plus three essays on the contents of the selected lectures. Grading ratio 1:1 (review: essays)
Calculation of the module final mark	100% of the mark obtained in the final exam / assignment(s)
Retakes of the exam	1
Frequency	Annually, during winter term
Workload	Attendance: 12 teaching hours Private study: 240 hours
Duration of module
Language of teaching	German and English
Preparatory reading	HSK 5.1, Chapter V
Last changes	September 2019